NOTE: The American University-Pulitzer Center Campus Consortium partnership

offers two international reporting student fellowships. Each of the fellowships is for $2,500.

For one of the fellowships: AU's Center for Latin American and Latino Studies \(CLALS\) is a contributing partner to this initiative. One of the fellows will focus on subject matter related to the Center's work on religion and Latin American affairs. The award will go to the student whose successful application deals with "Religion and Climate Change." (See <http://www.american.edu/clals/religion-and-climate-change.cfm>) The primary goal of this fellowship is to make a short film on the selected subject matter. Professor Bill Gentile will accompany the winner during the production stage of the video project in a foreign country.

For the other fellowship: The student may propose any topic and region of his or her choosing.

1) List your anticipated travel dates and proposed reporting location/itinerary.

2) Provide a preliminary TOTAL budget estimate:

Using the lines below, include a breakdown of the total budget estimate from above.

For example, AIRFARE: $300

Total:

Remember: Each of the two fellowships offered is for $2,500. If your budget is over that amount, please specify the source of the additional funds.

3) Provide a short description of your proposed project in the space below or on a separate sheet of paper (250 words or less).

Supplemental descriptive information may also be submitted, but the 250-summary is key.

4) Include your resume and 2-3 recent samples of your work. Please include links to your video samples.

5) It would greatly assist us if applicants submit a list of any other plausible distribution avenues, aside from the Pulitzer Center, they are considering for their reporting.

6) One letter of recommendation. This letter may be submitted by one of the three persons you've listed above as a reference. The letter should explain the recommender's relationship with you (for example professor, advisor); it should address your skills and your ability to complete the project you've proposed.

Each of the two fellowships is for $2,500.00.

Students must submit electronic applications AND hard-copy applications to Professor Bill Gentile no later than midnight of Thursday 31 March 2016.

Please send electronic applications to billgentile@billgentile.com.

Please submit hard copy applications in a large, self-addressed manila envelope, to:

Professor Bill Gentile
McKinley # 230
School of Communication
American University
4400 Massachusetts Ave. NW
Washington, DC 20016

Fellowship winners will be announced the week of Monday 18 April. Your documents will be returned to you after the application process.
